

THE ARTS, RECREATION, AND WORSHIP CONFERENCE

May 6-11, 2019 | Montreat, North Carolina

AT THE Table

The Arts, Recreation and Worship Conference is a week long experiential opportunity amongst a community where all are welcome At The Table. The event focuses on recreation, worship, community, creativity and the arts. It is designed for those who want to deepen their creativity, broaden their leadership skills and experience personal spiritual renewal. In addition to whole group worship and recreation events, participants select from a wide range of unique courses. Our learning together provides space for us to share in community that includes all of God's voices

Dianna Wright - Worship Leader

Dr. Y Dianna Wright is the Associate Presbyter for Equip and African American Ministries for Salem Presbytery in Clemmons, NC and currently serves on the General Assembly's Committee on Ecumenical and Interreligious Relations. She is committed to the ministry of education and using creative ways to teach the gospel story. She continues to glorify God through the use of the liturgical arts including dance, storytelling, music, and drama.

CONFERENCE LEADERSHIP

Jose Rivera - Music Leader

Jose Rivera is coordinator of Music Education and Associate Professor of Music at the University of North Carolina-Pembroke where he conducts the University Chorale and teaches choral methods, vocal techniques, and supervises student teachers. Dr. Rivera currently serves as the American Choral Director's Association Repertoire and Resources National Chair for Ethnic Music. He would never share this himself, but he has been described as a positive ball of energy who is able to take any group of voices and make incredible music!
