

PLAYOLOGY

Experiencing God through the art of play

Saturday, March 14 / 8:30 am - 3:30 pm

Early Center, Union Presbyterian Seminary, Richmond Campus

WHAT IS PLAYOLOGY?

Playology is chock-full of interactive training and practical resources to integrate recreation and play into your ministry context. Experienced leaders will lead a full day of recreation-related workshops. The day kicks off with a Theme Party and ends with Closing Worship, and each registered participant will select two (2) workshop options as well. All of the elements are extremely practical by design, so participants can take the experience and apply to their own context immediately. In addition, a round table discussion on the Theology of Recreation will be incorporated around lunch. This event is a great resource for children and youth leaders, pastors, worship leaders, camp counselors, educators, recreation leaders, volunteers, and more! Whether you come alone or in a group, you will experience creative ways to build community.

WORKSHOPS

Participants choose two workshops (one morning and one afternoon) of these workshop choices:

Morning Workshops

CreArt

Unleash your creativity with a variety of simple and purposeful art activities. Participants will go home with a number of completed projects, instructions, and ideas for use with all ages in VBS, gift-making workshops, service projects, and retreats.

Around the Table

This workshop is designed to teach intergenerational activities that can be played around tables by all ages at gatherings such as family night suppers, Sunday school classes, retreats, and more.

Afternoon Workshops

Games Galore

Start to finish, we will pack as many games into our time as humanly possible! Active games, "no equipment" games, quiet games, name games, and the list goes on and on.

Creative Bible Study

Looking for creative ways to share God's WORD? In this workshop, experience ways to strengthen connections between Scripture and real life through a variety of interactive approaches to reading, hearing, and sharing God's powerful WORD.
