

PLAYOLOGY IN THE 901

EXPERIENCING GOD THROUGH THE ART OF PLAY

This is a regional event of Re:CREATE
(Connecting Recreation, Experimental Arts, Theology, & Education)

March 9 from 9:00-3:30

Cost is $25 & includes lunch

This is a daylong workshop where you, your volunteers and staff will learn from some of the best. This is a day of interactive training. Experienced leaders will provide seven different creative workshops, a worship experience, a theme party and a time of reflection and networking. The day will be held at Colonial Park United Methodist Church. This is a great event for recreation and youth leaders, summer staff counselors, VBS teachers, youth advisors, or anyone interested in just having fun. This workshop will help build community among your staff, workplace, and ministry area.

Workshop Courses in the morning

Dutch oven cooking – Brian Maness

Youth Ministry: Sustainability, Structure, and Beyond (morning Class) – Jen Evans

Rainy day games (morning class) – Roger Maness

Smart phone Photography/Editing for program marketing – Aaron Goodwin

Workshop Courses in the afternoon

Games Galore (afternoon class) – Roger Maness

Youth Ministry: A View of the Who and Why it Matters (afternoon class) – Jen Evans

Come to Art Camp (afternoon Class) – Jayn Lando

To Register (please fill out and turn in to Colonial Park UMC along with $25 per person)

Name _____ Cell Phone _____

Church/School _____ Email Address _____

Morning Course _____ Afternoon Course _____

Mail Registration form to Colonial Park UMC

Attn: Brian Maness

5330 Park Avenue, Memphis, TN 38119

For more information go to: colonialpark.org or www.re-create.cc